In Regard to This Sale

Fortunately the anniversary of the foundation of this business comes right at a time when most people sincerely want to economize. This Anniversary Sale surpasses in value and price reductions anything we have attempted in the past—which speaks volumes. It is our appreciation of your patronage, expressed in the most substantial and effective way we know of. It is therefore our desire that the people offered in this sale shall receive as wide distribution as possible, that all our customers have a share of the distinct advantages.

To Do Justice

to the offerings mentioned on this page, we have had to give full page of space. But to slip prices to the very lowest we could make even in advertising, relying on our reputation for high-grade merchandise. Each day's advertising during this week will carry an additional offering. Those mentioned here go on sale Monday.

—No Exchanges
—No Returns
—No C. O. D.'s
—No Credits or Refunds
Every Sale During Anniversary Week Must Be Final

Choose carefully and be sure you are satisfied with what you buy for we cannot return goods except as having been made strictly good quality. We do not deserve in the face of the large reductions, it is unfair to other customers who are disappointed in not getting the goods they want. You might otherwise return only too late for them to get.

Important Suggestions
Every day's advertisement during this sale will consist of new offerings. Lead every advertisement carefully and use it as a shopping list. Once any goods are offered they remain on sale for the week or as long as the stock lasts. Morning hours are best for shopping. Cries are alert and refrained. Stocks are much larger and crowds are not so large as later in the day. We quote no former or comparative prices in any of our advertisements. We let you be your own judge of values. Store hours, daily, 9:30 to 5:30. Nothing sold to dealers.
